LEWISVILLE PUBLIC ART ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING MINUTES
SPECIAL CALLED MEETING
September 8, 2026
Lewisville Town Hall – Council Chamber

I. Call to Order – Chair John Armbruster called the meeting to order at 6:02 P.M. In attendance were John Armbruster, Deirdre Mullen, Daniel Robinson, Sarah Reece, Rebecca Scherbak, and Town Manager Stacy Tolbert. Elizabeth Miller was absent. There is one vacant seat.

II. Old Business

A. Council Chamber Project Proposal Review - This special meeting was called for the purpose of viewing, discussing, and approving the submission of artist Alexis Kline's (Rebecca Scherbak's granddaughter) proposal for the Council Chamber Mural. John Armbruster gave the floor to Ms. Scherbak who distributed copies of Alexis Kline's proposal; provided two sets of renderings painted on canvases; and the proposal included quoted fees.

Discussion ensued about the size, placement and whether to include wainscoting. Further discussion took place regarding the artist's time, costs, and her painting the murals on luan panels; artwork hanging; proper lighting; panel sizes; types of framing to encase the murals; and use of the Public Works Building for Ms. Kline to paint.

Ms. Scherbak was asked to get a new quote/price for the panels from Ms. Kline due to size adjustments.
Town Manager Tolbert to provide an update to Town Council at the next Council meeting; and communicate via email with the Art Committee the direction of Council.

Moved by John Armbruster, seconded by Sarah Reece to approve the 4' x 8' panels with framing and no wainscoting, using one of the two renderings. The motion passed unanimously.

Moved by Sarah Reece, seconded by Daniel Robinson to approve rendering B. The motion passed unanimously.

III. For the Good of the Order

A. Next Meeting – October 5, 2026 – The committee consensus was to meet at the Mary Alice Warren Community Center in the Great Wagon Room.

IV. Adjournment – Moved by Daniel Robinson, seconded by Sarah Reece to adjourn the meeting. The motion carried unanimously. The Public Art Advisory Committee adjourned at 7:22 P.M.
